

Pirates

you are supposed to figure out
whats going on and understand
you know they dont travel

left to right turn
directing which way to go
and to command
the way that you feel it

everythings been won theres nothing left to rob
people like me
scattered
we can't find eachother
do what youre supposed to do
the jobs, the house
everybody has to

canons dont thunder
nothing left to plunder its all up in the air
just let them
work the ropes
promise you will share

types of investments caves and connections
planes trains get u there never left stranded
caught red handed
bank machines everywhere

people like me
we cant find eachother
the jobs, the house

You're supposed to
what you're supposed to do
